Ceremony

Sara Woodburn, Queen of the 1959 Homecoming, entered the field at half time riding on the travois. The pony, an experienced trouper, owned by Kelly Two-good, was led by Jerry Miller.

Chieftain Keith Terry crowned King Larry Benson and in turn Larry crowned Queen Sara.

The Indian warriors danced to the beating tom-toms and then the band played "By the Light of the Silvery Moon." The Pep Club stood at attention during the ceremony.
